

Sam Latra, DVM

Practice Limited to Emergency & Critical Care

Sam Latra, DVM, joined the emergency and critical care staff at OVRS in July of 2004. He graduated from Michigan State University, College of Veterinary Medicine in May 2003. After graduating from veterinary college, he completed a one-year rotating small animal internship at Garden State Veterinary Specialists. During his internship, he was exposed to one of the largest caseloads in the country (35,000 per year) and was given the opportunity to expand as an emergency clinician under a board certified emergency and critical care specialist (Dr. Kate Palmer). His interests include emergency surgery and internal medicine.

Dr. Latra is a member of the Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society, American Veterinary Medical Association, and the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi.
