

Veterinarian Profile

SARA SNOW, DVM

Resident, American College of Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care

Sara Snow, DVM joined the Emergency and Critical Care Service in July 2006. She graduated from Michigan State University College of Veterinary Medicine in 2004 and went on to complete a rotating internship in small animal medicine and surgery at Carolina Veterinary Specialists in Charlotte, NC. In July 2005 she returned to Michigan State University for a specialty internship in emergency and critical care and went on to pursue residency training. In addition to her work at OVRs, Dr. Snow is currently part of the critical care team at MSU and works under the supervision of three board certified specialists.

Dr. Snow is a member of the Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society, The Society of Critical Care Medicine, and the American Veterinary Medical Association. Her special interests include transfusion medicine, hospital acquired infection, and exotic animal medicine.