

Elizabeth Sopoliga

DVM

Practice Limited to Emergency & Critical Care

Elizabeth Sopoliga, DVM has been practicing exclusively emergency medicine since graduating in 2002 from Michigan State University. Immediately after graduation, she practiced at a high volume and progressive emergency clinic in southern California. She returned to Michigan in April 2004 to help initiate the Oakland Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care department of OVRS.

Her special interests include: emergency surgery, pain management and endoscopic foreign body retrieval.

MEMBERSHIPS:

Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Society
Southeastern Veterinary Medical Association
American Veterinary Medical Association
American Animal Hospital Association

medical staff member